ABOUT THE ILLINOIS CHAPTER

- The largest Chapter in ASHRAE....with some 1,200 members.
- Monthly dinner meetings that provide continuing education and updates by industry leaders from across the country. Most meetings are preceded by half-day seminars that earn PEs professional development hours.
- Other in-depth seminars for continuing education in the latest “state-of-the-art” on technical subjects.
- A balanced cross-section of participating members representing the leaders in consulting, contracting, marketing, education and government.
- A monthly newsletter, INTERCOM, helps members keep up with the local HVAC&R industry scene.
- The Chapter’s Education Committee works with area colleges and engineering schools to provide a continuous flow of qualified technical personnel into our local industry. Going one step beyond, they give annual scholarships to students considering engineering careers and awards at high school science fairs, etc. — and are familiar figures at high school career days.
- The Chapter’s prestigious Excellence in Engineering Award is given each year to several outstanding engineering projects in the area. Some have gone on to take top honors at ASHRAE’s regional and society levels.
- The Illinois Chapter Golf Outing, in September, is one of the most popular industry social events of the season. Other social events also take place during the year.

The Illinois Chapter boundaries generally extend from the Wisconsin border to Champaign, Illinois; Lake Michigan and the Indiana border on the east to Aurora on the West.

The Illinois Chapter, in ASHRAE’s Region VI, represents members in this area and brings their special needs to the Chapters Regional Conference each spring. Belonging to an ASHRAE Chapter brings a new dimension to a professional career. Belonging to ASHRAE’s largest brings added benefits.
